Ordeal

James Neal discussed the progress of the Ordeal. Talked about how the lodge is still looking for an ordeal master as well as elimgimats, cooks, ceremony teams and if anybody had options for people for these positions get in contact with John Neal (VC Program not present). Also mentioned that the ordeal has cost $200 so far for use of facilities. James also mentioned how the lodge wants an inventory of supplies for the ordeal done as well as a budget report for the activities to be done by Rob Buxbaum (Treasurer not present).

Winter Banquet

James Let the LEC know that John Neal is still looking for a coordinator, cooks, location, menu, and cost for events; also, Matt James (secretary not present) needs to create a letter to go out to members about the Banquet.

Conclave Promotions

James asked everybody to promote the event. The topic of transportation came up and Monte told us about how the lodge could rent a van that could hold 12 people with luggage at $200 per van at $15 per person. A motion was made by Ben Johnson to approve the vans and the cost it was seconded by Steven Ash. Motion passed. A sign-up sheet will be made and sent out in the mail for people to sign up.

Chapter Report

Steven reported that his chapter is holding a brotherhood event on the 26 and 29 of August. The testing will take place on Thursday the 26 at the Tri-Cities scout office and the ceremony will be held at Sacajawea Park on the 29.

DUES

James reminded everybody that dues need to be paid and can be paid online.

LEC Dates

The LEC talk about setting dates for LEC meetings through all of next year. What was finally decided was that the next LEC will be on Saturday September 11 during the Ordeal and all other meetings will be on the second Saturday every other month at 1:00pm starting in November 2004. Motion to approve was made by James Neal seconded by Steven Ash. Motion passed.

Event Dates

The LEC started talking about setting dates for the lodge events next year, but the topic was tabled till next meeting due to not enough information about council and school events in the 2005 year.
